Yesterday morning when the cook at the county jail got up and began to stir around she saw sitting around the big heater in the rear of the jail four negro women who had been confined in the cells for females. The cook gave the alarm and Sheriff Ford and Deputy Whaley hurried back to find out what was the matter. As the sheriff approached the door one of the inmates said: "Do thyself no harm, we are all here." They had dug out through the brick wall during the night and built a fire in the stove. Not one of them expressed a desire to escape.

City Attorney John F. Flint has been invited to lecture in Cameron before the Knights of Pythias. The Cameron lodge has determined upon a series of lectures by prominent men of the state, and in the list of these who have accepted are Rev. W. N. Scott, Rev. B. H. Carroll, Hon. D. G. Wooten, Hon. W. K. Homan, Rev. C. K. Wright, Dr. R. M. Swearingen, Mr. E. G. Senter and John F. Flint. Mr. Flint accepts for the date of February 5th. A very interesting time is anticipated.

You do not have to draw on your imagination while seated at a fire of the "Big Muddy lump." On the contrary, you have to "draw back" from its "generous heat." Remember the Big Muddy and take no other. Telephone 625 for coal.

A Singular Collision.

CRESTON, Ia., Jan. 5.—There was a singular collision between two engines in the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy yards Sunday morning. A switch engine with Engineer J. J. McKenna and Charles W. Van Werner, fireman, was backing out with a train of cars. Backing westward, pulling another, was a regular engine of large size. The trains were on different tracks, but the two engines collided near the intersection of the tracks. Fireman Van Werner was crushed to death and Engineer McKenna badly injured.

Cold in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 5.—The high winds were hard on the railroads in sections where snow fell and many delayed trains are reported. Very cold weather is reported on all lines, especially in North Dakota and Montana, where the thermometer is below zero. On the western division of Omaha the temperature ranges from 2 to 6 degrees above zero and in Wisconsin 4 degrees below.

RESTORED ALLIANCE.

FRUITS OF THE CORSICANA MEETING LAST NOVEMBER.

Mr. W. B. Morrow of Calvert Writes Trenchantly on the Duty Of the Members of the Dormant Alliances--Secretary in Work up to his Eyes.

To The Farmers' Alliance:

Pursuant to notice delegates from several sub-Alliances—among the number the largest and most influential ones—met in Franklin on Tuesday, December 22, 1891, and organized under the charter and by authority of the Farmers' Grand State Alliance (organized at Corsicana November 26-7, 1891) a Grand County Farmers' Alliance. The intelligence and high standing of the members of this convention, and the wisdom shown in the selection of officers elected to govern this body, is an augury for the success of the movement which has for its object the restoration of the Alliance to its pristine purity, before it was rent and torn asunder by political dissensions.

This organization is an initial point; the beginning of the work of restoring the order to its original principles and grand purposes of the uplifting and amelioration of the farming class, and replace the Farmers' Alliance in the position it occupied before designing men had entered its fold, and perverted it into partisan politics. It is the purpose of those engaged in this work to push it not only in this county but other counties are organizing and soon the whole state will be represented in this restored Farmers' Alliance, and after the Memphis convention it will be extended to all the states. This is a call on the more than 2000 dormant sub-Alliances and the 200,000 non-affiliated Alliance members in Texas who quit the order when it went into politics to reorganize their defunct lodges and kindle anew the fires upon the Alliance alters and rehabilitate its waste places and restore the order to its former grandeur and power when its marvelous growth was the wonder of the age. In it then centered the hopes and around it clung the fond aspirations of the oppressed, and if leprous demagogues had not laid fratricidal hands on the order, polluting its holy places, wrecking its business enterprises and looting its treasures, its bright dawning promise might, ere now, have culminated in the disenfranchisement of labor. This restored Alliance is the only one with a charter from the State of Texas, and the only one with a legal status and existence. The Jones-Tracy sub treasury political Alliance is a "pudding-stone" "aggregation" made up of a half dozen labor organizations holding a charter from L. L. Polk, president of the National Alliance and co-operative Union, and exists without any legal authority whatever from the state. We invite all who desire to see the Alliance freed from the maelstrom of corrupt partisan politics to join us in this work of rescuing our beloved order and restoring it to its beneficent work of improving the farmers mentally, morally socially and financially. Our sub-Alliances will receive you singly. Our county Alliances will accept your sub-Alliance and the Grand State Farmers' Alliance will admit your county Alliance to membership.

The work starts off bravely. Hon. W. T. Gass, of Bonham, Texas, our secretary-treasurer, writes: "I am in work up to my eyes; am receiving applications daily for charters and commissions for organizers."

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; She bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taken ten bottles, found herself sound and well, and now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at W. B. Morrison & Co's. Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.
